AN ACT,

Entitled, A further supplement to the act, entitled, An act for regulating the mone of staning executions, and for other nurposes.
Paned December 22, 1820.

Whereas, great doubts have arisen whether justices of the peace of the respective counties, within this state, are authorised to issue executions on judgments rendered by the justices aforesaid, and superseded under the act, entitled, An additional supplement to the act. entitled, An act for regulating the mode of staying exetutions, and repealing the acts of assembly therein mentioned, and for other purposes, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and nineteen; for remedy whereof,

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the clerks of the several counties of this state, or any justice of the peace of the same county, respectively be. and they are hereby authorised and empowered, on the application of the plaintiff, or plaintiffs, his, her, or their attorney, or some person authorised by him, her or them, in writing, and none other, to issue executions, in the case or cases before mentioned, according to the provisions of the said act, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and nineteen, from the supersedeas filed in their office, in case application shall be made to the clerk, or if to a justice of the peace, then from their respective dockets, such dockets containing an entry of the su-persedeas and persons superseding, or from a short copy from the cleak's j.dgment superseded, the costs, and the names of the securities or persons superseding, and any other material part of said judgment.

2. And be it enacted, That for furnishing said copy, the clerk be entitled to the sum of twelve cents and a half, as a compensation for each and every copy so turnished, and for every execution, twenty-five

S. And be it enacted, That all executors and administrators may supersede and stay execution, issued against the goods and chattels, rights and credits, of their testators or intestates respectively, in the same manner as if the said executions had issued against them in their own right, according to the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, and the form of the supersedeas to be used in such case, shall be as nearly similar to the form prescribed in the said act as the circumstances of the case will admit. Provided always, That such supersedeas shall render the executors or administrators so superseding, liable to be proceeded against on the said supersedeas, in the same manner as if the debt so superseded had been his. her, or their own personal debt. 5. And be it enacted. That in cases where by said act a supersedeas is required to be taken before two justices, one shall hereafter be sufficient therefor.

om a Federalist in the country to Democratic friend in Baltimore.

February 20th, 1821. You ask me "Why do not the feralists cease their opposition to, dunite with the democrats?"d "Why, as there is no objection the general, should there exist y to the state government?" ose and many other questions of a milar nature, I am led to believe at your object is to induce an instigation into the causes of such position. Under this impression, d knowing that you are not one of se who, being so warped by parprejudice, as to preclude the poslity of a fair enquiry.
